

NBA FINALS 2026 CHAMPIONSHIP RECAP

Championship Series Result

Denver Nuggets	4	wins
Boston Celtics	2	wins

Finals MVP: Jamal Murray (Denver Nuggets)

Murray averaged 28.3 points, 7.1 assists, and 1.8 steals per game throughout the series. His clutch performance in Game 6 clinching game included 32 points and 9 assists, securing the Nuggets' back-to-back championship.

Series Summary

Game 1: Denver 104, Boston 98 - Home court advantage sets the tone with strong defensive efforts. Game 2: Denver 112, Boston 107 - Extended Denver lead to 2-0 in Boston. Game 3: Boston 115, Denver 110 - Celtics avoid sweep with dominant third quarter. Game 4: Denver 118, Boston 113 - Murray's triple-double leads Nuggets to series clinch opportunity. Game 5: Boston 121, Denver 119 - OT thriller keeps Celtics alive. Game 6: Denver 128, Boston 121 - Championship sealed in Denver.

Series Statistics

Metric	Denver	Boston
Avg Points	110.2	106.8
Field Goal %	48.3%	45.7%
Three-Point %	38.9%	35.2%
Rebounds/Game	45.8	43.2
Assists/Game	28.1	26.4

Championship Highlights

The Denver Nuggets successfully defended their championship title in 2026, winning their second consecutive NBA championship. Nikola Jokic's presence in the paint proved invaluable, combining with Murray's playmaking and improved perimeter defense. The Celtics mounted a competitive challenge but could not overcome Denver's depth and experience. This marks the Nuggets' dominant era in the Western Conference and solidifies their position among NBA dynasties.